

San Bernardino
Valley College

STEM Summer Institute

Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics

At California State University, San Bernardino

Three Days!
June 17-19, 2013

An opportunity for STEM majors, tutors, future tutors or teachers

Three days of activities at CSUSB at no cost (parking fees covered)

Add this to your resume!

Here is a sample of the activities and presentations:

- Orientation, College Transfer, Degree Programs, Teaching Opportunities
- Introduction to Inquiry and Problem Based Learning, Individually Think About Cross-Curricular Activities
- Using Telecommunications Technology to Support Tutoring
- Career Exploration, Technological Literacy
- Campus Tours including Natural Sciences and College of Education
- STEM in Action at CSUSB

Applications are available at the Student Success Center or Science Division Office (PS148)

Applications will be due May 6th, please submit to Science Division Office

Should you have any questions please contact our STEM counselor for further details:
ERIK MOBERLY (909) 384-5206