

Original Bylaws

138: ~~Vacancies on the Senate between elections resulting from leaves or resignations may be filled temporarily by an appointment made by other Senators from the Division involved. Such appointees shall only serve until a regular or special election is held. In the event a Division is represented by only one Senator, the temporary appointment to fill that vacancy may be made by the Chair of the Elections Committee. (3/14/79)~~

139: Vacancies on the Senate between elections resulting from leaves or resignations may be filled temporarily by an appointment made by other Senators from the Division involved. Such appointees shall only serve until a regular or special election is held. In the event a Division is represented by only one Senator, the temporary appointment to fill that vacancy may be made by the Chair of the Elections Committee. (3/14/79)

Changes

138: To fill a position declared vacant, a special election may be held by the Division. The division coordinator and Elections chair shall work together to conduct the special election. The announcement of the special election and call for candidates is to be distributed to all Division faculty at least two weeks prior to the special election. The division coordinator and Elections chair shall work together to conduct a confidential election by paper ballot, email, or online voting and shall confirm all appointments. A special election for a vacant senator position shall be completed at least 4 weeks prior to an officer election. (1/31/24)