

Program Review Committee Proposed Revisions to Charge and Purpose

Current Committee Charge and Purpose College Council approved 3/12/14

Current Committee Charge: For regular programmatic assessment on campus, the Program Review Committee examines and evaluates the resource needs and effectiveness of all instructional and service areas. These review processes occur on one-, two-, and four-year cycles as determined by the District, College, and other regulatory agencies. Program Review is conducted by authorization of the SBVC Academic Senate.

Revised Committee Charge: The Program Review Committee guides and serves as a resource for the process of self-evaluation of all instructional and service areas for regular assessment of San Bernardino Valley College programs. Program Review is conducted by authorization of the SBVC Academic Senate.

Current – The purpose of Program Review is to:

- Provide a full examination of how effectively programs and services are meeting departmental, divisional, and institutional goals
- Aid in short-range planning and decision-making
- Improve performance, services, and programs
- Contribute to long-range planning
- Contribute information and recommendations to other college processes, as appropriate
- Serve as the campus conduit for decision-making by forwarding information to appropriate committees

Revised – The purpose of Program Review is to:

- Guide the college through an ongoing self-examination of how effectively programs and services are aligned with its mission, vision, and values through a structured process.
- Foster a culture of continuous improvement.
- Contribute information and recommendations, including needs assessment and resource requests, to other college processes and committees.
