TOPIC	DISCUSSION	FURTHER ACTION
1. Approval of 04/27/21 minutes.	Carmen moved and April seconded. Motion passed to approve the Minutes.
2. Enrollment Update	EIS snapshot was shared - enrollment looks good and is close to last year's figures. 2100 students are registered for summer.
3. Summer/Fall Registration	Today is the second day of fall priority registration and the numbers look good for fall. Summer is strong with almost 850 FTE's for summer and 97 for fall.	Unemployment rate in California was discussed with the following shared:https://www.edd.ca.gov/newsroom/unemployment-march-2021.htm
4. Enrollment Management Plan Areas of Focus Spreadsheet	Areas of Focus spreadsheet was sent to everyone with a request to complete and return by May 4. Very few were received so it was discussed in depth during today's meeting.	Put items in the Chat and they will be entered in the spreadsheet. Email any other items to Suzan with a cc: to Dr. Thayer before the next meeting for review.

5. Retention Work Group Update	There will be a meeting of this group on Thursday, May 13 at 1:00pm and all are welcome to attend. A survey went out to students and employees about any concerns they had returning back to campus and it will be reviewed to determine if there are other items of concern that should be addressed.	Email Ray Carlos for the link if you are interested.
6. Student Equity Update	No update at this time.
7. Other	Marketing is trying to reach a broader audience with postcards and digital efforts. DSP&S has a procedural handbook in Web Advisor. EOPS had a large number of students attend the priority registration assistance event and the issues with Colleague and fee waivers is now resolved. Board meeting on Thursday, May 13. Black Graduate event is Saturday, May 15. Wednesday, May 26 is Commencement at 9:00am.	Remind students they need to renew their FAFSA or their Dream Act every year, so they have that fee waiver in place for the upcoming academic year.
