The SBVC Library houses a collection of more than 70,000 volumes, searchable by author, title and/or subject, along with more than 200,000 eBooks and articles, in the OCLC WorldShare online catalog (sbccdlibs.worldcat.org). The library also subscribes to numerous full-text research databases, accessible from any computer on campus, and from off campus with passwords found in Canvas.

The library computer lab provides currently enrolled students with 120 computers as well as cash/coin-operated printers and photocopiers. Computer technicians are available to provide basic technical support. Faculty librarians provide one-on-one research assistance, orientations, workshops, and information literacy instruction. For research assistance at any time, day or night, the library participates in the Ask-A-Librarian online chat reference service. Books and other items in the general collection normally circulate for 3 weeks. Textbooks and other reserve items (available at the Circulation Desk) normally circulate for 2 hours, and are limited to in-library use.

The Library Learning Center and Lab provides free access to personal computers, audio and video cassette players, and other multi-media equipment for use on assignments and self-paced instruction. There is no charge for the use of equipment; however, there is a charge for printing and scanning. The Textbook Bank is located at the circulation desk. Hours vary.

Scholarships and Awards

CC-226 (909) 384-4471

valleycollege.edu/scholarships

Scholarships are offered each year to students enrolled at San Bernardino Valley College. Detailed information is available to students year-round at the SBVC scholarship website. There are two types of scholarships available to students, inside scholarships and outside scholarships. Most scholarships are funded through businesses, associations and college organizations; however, some are funded through individual donations to the SBVC Foundation. Scholarship recipients are selected based on a wide variety of criteria including, in some cases, academic achievement, financial need, community service, and barriers or obstacles to their education. The Scholarships Office administers the program in conjunction with the SBVC Scholarship Committee, which is composed of faculty and staff from across the campus. Students who have completed 12 units or more at SBVC may apply for an inside scholarship, which includes over 100 individual scholarships by completing the online application between October and January each year. Outside scholarship information is available 12 months out of the year, and scholarship workshops are available to assist students with the process. Scholarship workshops are especially helpful for first time applicants and specialized populations such as AB540, disabled students, foster youth, transfer students, re-entry students, and other students facing challenges to funding their education. Students are advised to check the website monthly for workshop schedules, updates and new scholarship postings.

Supplemental Instruction (S.I.) Across the Disciplines

AD/SS-103 (909) 384-4404

Supplemental Instruction (SI) is an academic assistance program that utilizes peer-assisted study sessions. SI sessions are regularly-scheduled, informal review sessions in which students compare notes, discuss readings, develop organizational tools, and predict test items. Students learn how to integrate course content and study skills while working together. The sessions are facilitated by “SI leaders”, students who have previously done well in the course and who attend all class lectures, take notes, and act as model students. The purpose for SI includes:

- ✓ To increase retention within targeted historically difficult courses
- ✓ To improve student grades in targeted historically difficult courses
- ✓ To increase the graduation rates of students

Complaints or Grievance Grade Appeal Process

Students are encouraged to resolve complaints at the appropriate level of the dispute. Any student complaint about a grade, and instructor, or a course should be first made to the instructor involved. However, should this approach fail or be inappropriate, students may submit a written complaint through the Faculty Chair or the Academic Dean. Once received, the complaint will be forwarded to the appropriate college official for review. For more information on the student complaint process, please refer to the San Bernardino Community College District Board Policies by visiting sbccd.org.

A student may submit a grievance to any manager or employee or any employee in any area for delivery to the Vice President of Student Services who will assess which manager or vice president is to oversee the grievance process.
