The Nightingale Pledge

I solemnly pledge myself before God, and in the presence of this assembly, to pass my life in purity and to practice my profession faithfully.

I will abstain from whatever is deleterious and mischievous and will not take or knowingly administer any harmful drug.

I will do all in my power to maintain and elevate the standard of my profession, and will hold in confidence all personal matters committed to my keeping and all family affairs coming to my knowledge in the practice of my profession.

With loyalty will I endeavor to aid physicians in their work and devote myself to the welfare of those committed to my care.

Florence Nightingale

A Nurse's Reflection

*Give me the intelligence, intuition, and knowledge to Assess.
Give me the reason, rationality, and understanding so I may Plan.
Give me energy, agility, and tenderness during Implementation.
Give me the wisdom, perception, and fairness to Evaluate.
Most of all, give me Patience, Compassion, and Kindness for all people.*

Special Thanks

Thank you to our dear families, friends, and instructors. As we dreamed of becoming the best caring nurses we could be, you embraced the noble purpose of our dream. We say thank you for all of this with expressions of love and appreciation. We shall go forth from this place and thank you daily by drawing on the power of your gifts to serve humanity with the hope of healing, with comforting care and words, and by demonstrating that dreams really do come true.
