The San Bernardino Valley College Grant Development & Administration Office works with faculty & staff to develop grant proposals for innovative projects. We provide the following services to support the development of grant-funded proposals at SBVC:

- Assistance with program/project design, including the articulation of project goals, outcomes, benchmarks, assessments
- Identification of possible funding sources
- Budget development
- Narrative editing and formatting based on content provided by applicant(s)
- Templates and drafts of letters of commitment and support from SBVC administrators and potential program/project partners
- Completion of all necessary grant process forms, including those required by District
- Careful review of all grant applications and proposals to ensure all required elements are complete and meet the grant requirements
- Submission of grant application
- Workshops and professional development opportunities on program/project design, proposal development, and grant management
