Extended Opportunity Programs & Services (EOPS)

What is EOPS/ CARE? Check Eligibility & Apply

Specialized support services to help you succeed in college

Extended Opportunity Programs and Services (EOPS) provides comprehensive academic and support counseling, limited financial aid assistance, textbooks, and more to help you overcome financial needs, language barriers, and other academic challenges.

But that's not all. CARE, for single parents receiving public assistance, offers even more support to EOPS students to support your unique needs.

How We Can Help You

As an EOPS/CARE student, you'll have access to resources and opportunities to help you while at SBVC. Resources may vary depending on which program(s) you are a participant of.

Extended Counseling

A dedicated counselor to help you with your academic plans and the transfer process

Transfer Support

Get help planning and applying to transfer.

Priority A Registration

Register early each semester to help you get the classes you need.

Textbooks & Supplies

Help getting textbooks and supplies you need to be prepared for class.

Parking Assistance

Help with parking permits.

Specialized Academic Success Workshops

Workshops designed to meet your academic needs.

Laptop & Calculator Loans

Laptop and/or calculators are available for you to borrow throughout the semester.

Referrals to Community Resources

We will connect you with the resources to support you and your needs.

Food Assistance

Meal tickets to the on-campus cafeteria. For CARE students.

Who is EOPS/ CARE for?

EOPS is available to SBVC students disadvantaged by social, economic, educational or linguistic barriers. As an EOPS student, you may also be eligible for additional support through CARE.

EOPS
For students who are disadvantaged by social, economic, educational or linguistic barriers.

CARE
For EOPS students who are single parents receiving public assistance.

Get Started in EOPS/ CARE

All three programs start with EOPS. Use our online form to check your eligibility and complete the EOPS application. Once an EOPS student, our staff will help you to also apply to CARE.
