

INTERESTED IN BECOMING A MENTOR?

Calling all students with lived foster care experience who are interested in learning to lead, mentor and build community!

You are invited to participate in our Mentorship Trainings provided by Giveback Academy!

Must be participating in Guardian Scholars or NextUp programs to join

This training is right for you if...

- 1) You are interested in helping create a student-led and student-designed program to mentor and inspire local high school-aged foster youth
- 2) You are interested in learning how to deliver engaging workshops and share your story of resilience with foster youth at local high schools
- 3) You want a leadership role to put on your resume
- 4) You are interested in building community within your school's NextUp/GS programs

Come join your peers and see what Give Back has in store for you!
