Good morning, all...

HAPPY FLEX TUESDAY!

As we officially get Spring 2026 Convocation Week underway, I just wanted to take a moment to breakdown the events of the day. Again, as a reminder, ALL FLEX ACTIVITIES are VIRTUAL...and your attendance will be verified by completing the survey at the conclusion of each session.

*Faculty are required to complete 12 "Flex Hours" per Academic Year. Additional Flex opportunities will be available accordingly within the next few weeks, with more details to follow.

Some of the opportunities for the day are as follows:

Adjunct Orientation

January 13, 2026
12:30 pm - 5:30 pm

Adjunct Orientation is your opportunity to get connected at San Bernardino Valley College and start the term feeling informed, supported, and prepared. The day begins with a warm welcome, followed by interactive breakout sessions and a focused conversation on student engagement, wellness, and accessibility. You'll end the day with your academic division to connect with colleagues, learn division-specific expectations, and get answers to your questions as you prepare for the semester ahead.

Lastly...there will be an opportunity for those in need to complete a DE Refresher course.

THIS IS AN INVITE ONLY AFFAIR

If there are any questions/concerns regarding your status, please contact Dr. Sheri Lillard and/or your Department Chair.

Enjoy your FLEX Tuesday and be on the lookout for the “Spring 2026 Convocation Wednesday” email tomorrow morning!
