

Campus Committees

In any given month, dozens of committees on campus are convening with the intent of making San Bernardino Valley College the best that it can be today and in the future. Committee structures are based on the concept of shared governance as called for in Education Code 70902\(b\)\(7\).

Shared governance provides the opportunity for "effective participation" for staff and students in decisions that affect them.

San Bernardino Valley College refers to our model as “Participatory Governance”.
