Title IX is a federal law that prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in an educational institution’s academic, education, extracurricular, and athletic activities, both on and off campus. Title IX protects all people regardless of their gender or gender identity from sexual harassment and violence, which are forms of sex discrimination.

What Does Title IX Cover? Sexual Discrimination • Sexual Violence • Consent
Sexual Harassment • Dating and Domestic Violence • Stalking • Bystander Intervention

What To Report? All allegations of discrimination, harassment, or retaliation based on sex, gender or sexual orientation, which are made against staff, faculty, students, applicants, or other third parties associated with the campus
