

San Bernardino Valley College

Great Teachers Retreat

JANUARY 27-29, 2011

New Location:

Prospect Park Carriage House ~ Redlands, California

Facilitated by James Robinson

Professor, SBVC Human Services Department

This workshop has become one of the most popular professional growth activities on campus. Past attendees have requested to go again and again! “One of the most powerful experiences a teacher can have.”

This is your opportunity to share successes and challenges, to focus on teaching and learning with your colleagues, to visit, metaphorically, your past “Great Teachers” and to renew your own sense of being as an “SBVC Great Teacher.”

If you are interested in attending, you must be available for the full retreat .We start at 12:00 PM on Thursday, Jan. 27th, and conclude by 1:00 PM on Saturday, Jan. 29th . (See the attached schedule for more details.)

Please complete both the Registration Form and SD-1 Form and return to the Professional Development Office LA-204D, by close of business, Friday, January 21, 2011.

For more information, email S. Courtney Hunter or call at Ext. 8623.

Space is limited!

To view images from a prior retreat, go to the SBVC

Professional Development website .