2016-2017 Request for Continuation of Dependency Override Status

Please complete the Request for Continuation of Dependency Override, if your unusual or extenuating circumstances still exist, so that the office can determine your dependency status for the 2016-2017 academic year. The Financial Aid Office will determine your eligibility for a continuation of a dependency override.

[ ] I understand that a Dependency Override is granted on an annual basis, and that I must reaffirm the unusual or extenuating circumstances remain unchanged, that led to my approved Dependency Override appeal during the 2015-2016 academic year.

If your status remains unchanged, you must sign and complete both sides of this form, which includes the following information:

- The whereabouts/location of your biological or adoptive parents.
- Describe the last time you had contact with either parent in the last year (when, where and the nature of contact).
- Describe how you supported yourself during the past year (shelter, food, clothing, transportation, medical care, etc.).
- Any other special circumstances that you believe we should consider that relates to your appeal to be considered an Independent student for the 2016-2017 academic year.
