Dr. Kinde,

HR’s responses are to Standard IIIA is provide in red below. Should you have any further questions, please contact me. Thanks.
Diversity Training

1. How does HR ensure that all hiring procedures are consistently followed?
   The HR Generalist assigned to the sites explains the recruitment and hiring process to the Hiring Manager. During orientation for managers, the policies and procedures are discussed.

2. How does HR provide diversity training to all employees?
   HR provides an online Diversity Awareness training to all new employees during orientation. Current and active employees are provided the online training as the need arises.

3. How does HR ensure that all members of a hiring committee have received diversity training?
   Like all other trainings, HR tracks trainings even for hiring committee members.

4. How has HR changed its policies to ensure that any alleged instances where hiring committee members have not received diversity training will no reoccur
First time hiring committee members are provided EEO training, Diversity Awareness and discussions of the recruitment and hiring policy and procedures.

Voluntary Transfer/Closed Promotion
1. What steps are in place to ensure that voluntary transfer and closed promotion policies adopted by the board are consistently followed?
   For all classified positions, the HR Generalist ensures that CSEA is provided the notice of the employment opportunity. It is a process that occurs prior to posting the CSEA position to the general public.

2. What step are in place to ensure that denial of transfer requests include a written explanation for the denial?
   For any denials of transfer/promotional request, a justification by the hiring manager will be provided for each denial.

3. What circumstances lead to the MOU between CSEA and District regarding inconsistencies in voluntary transfer and closed promotions?
   The past differences in the interpretation of Article 15 of the CSEA bargaining agreement led to the development of an MOU.

Evaluation of Managers
1. The 2010-2013 Long Range Staffing Plan indicated that 14 of 27 management evaluations were overdue. What is that figure now? How many overdue management evaluations (past & present) are due to an interim assignment?
   A total of 4 management evaluations are past due this fiscal year. This is due to the interim assignments and or vacancies.

2. What is HR’s current position of evaluating managers on interim assignment?
   HR position is that an interim assignment is temporary in nature.

3. What is the status of the Chancellor’s evaluation?
   The Chancellor’s evaluation is currently with the Board of Trustees.

Other
1. What positions are currently performed by substitutes or vendors?
   The following positions are currently performed by substitutes:
   - Custodian
   - Account Clerk I, II
   - Administrative Secretary
   - Secretary I, II
   - College Police Officer
   - College Security Officer
   - Child Development Assistant
   - Admission & Records Technician
   - Senior Programmer Analyst
   - Instructional Support Specialist
   - Switchboard Operator
   - Mail Clerk
2. When will the new Long Range Staffing Plan be completed?
   The Long Range Staffing Plan is being completed by the Collaborative Brain Trust.

3. According to HR’s program review process an HR Standard Operating Procedure Manual was supposed to be created by Fall 2011. The most recent program review document for HR states that review of HR policies and procedures and the SOP Manual are “planned, but not yet firmly scheduled”
   a. When will these items be addressed?
   b. What rationale should be included in the Accreditation Self-Study for the 3+ years delay in producing the manual?
   The HR Standard Operating Procedures Manual has been completed in DRAFT form since 2010. Absent a permanent HR Director and Vice Chancellor and the current and existing priorities, the manual has been on HOLD. The HR manual serves as the operating procedures and processing guidelines for the Human Resources staff.
