1. APPROVAL OF MINUTES
   Minutes approved with modifications

2. PUENTE
   - Explained the possible status of $1500 that was to be allocate to Puente project by the State but still has not been received
   - Possible reasons as to why funding has not been received
     - Statewide office has been reduced/downsized
   - Recommendation by Basic Skills Committee member:
     - Puente should work on acquiring outside funds instead of relying on Basic Skills funding
   - The proposed activities for Puente were articulated as follows:
     - Bus transportation
     - Trip to Museum of Tolerance
     - UCLA Stoles and T-Shirts
     - Mentor luncheon
   - Possible current funding sources for Puente are as follows:
     - U.C. $10,000 for training
     - $1,500 from state, but whereabouts of the monies are unknown.
   - Must have M.O.U. for funding of Puente projects

3. PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
   - Reported on how professional development was traditionally funded.
   - Traditionally received $6,500 from president’s funds.
- Currently, no longer supported through president’s funds.
- In process of obtaining funding from Edustream.

4. DISCUSSION ON FUNDING FOR TUMAINI
   PAULA

7. PROPOSAL OF FUNDING FOR STUDENT SUCCESS CENTER
   ROSE
   - Presented proposal for funding of Student Success Center.
   - Proposed funding will be used to support tutors, such as in the disciplines of math, reading and study skills. Funding will also enable the center to offer extended evening hours and Saturday availability.
   - The funding for the Student Success Center is as follows:
- Funding goes to payroll for tutors.
- Expenditures linked directly “to student success by supporting student learning and basic skills development.”

8. PROPOSAL OF FUNDING FOR READING TUTOR
   PAULA
   - Presented proposal for funding for reading tutor.
   - Proposed funding will be used to hire a reading tutor who is currently an adjunct instructor. The tutor will be approved for 300 hours, which will allow for reading tutoring two nights a week and offer Saturday availability.

9. UPDATE OF PREASSESSMENT WORKSHOPS
   PAULA
   - The English department has decided not to explore preassessment workshops at this time.
   - The Reading department has agreed to explore preassessment workshops for reading.
   - Possible compensation recommendations from Basic Skills members were as follows:
     - It was proposed that participants would be compensated up to 40 hours per lab rate
     - It was proposed to see how many hours it would take a tutor to develop a preassessment workshop.
   - Two preassessment workshops were to be offered in the spring 2013 semester.

10. UPDATE OF SUPPLEMENTAL INSTRUCTION (S.I.)
    PAULA
    - Of the English department, 2 faculty members are interested in incorporating S.I. in their classrooms.
    - S.I. will be offered at 65-70 hours noninstructional.
    - It was recommended that a modified form of supplemental instruction be implemented.
      - Offering it at 2 hours a week.
      - Training of tutors
    - Motion to table S.I. for Writing Center tutors to be discussed in February 2013
